

Marcus Carlsson H₂O @PharoDercks Gallery Berlin

PharoDercks gallery is proud to present Marcus Carlsson, an internationally successful artist, who has already attracted a great deal of attention in a short period of time. He won several awards, among others in 2016 the "International Art Prize" Uffizi – Florence" and the "Tiepolo – Arte Milan ". After exhibitions in Florence, the MAMAG (Modern Art Museum Austria), the Expo "Carrousel du Louvre" Paris, and exhibitions in New York, Washington, Milan and Shanghai, it was time to go for Berlin. At PharoDercks, Marcus Carlsson presents his latest works, exclusively for Berlin, with the defining element connecting him with Berlin, H₂O – water.

H₂O

Berlin lies, lives and loves on, in and by the water. H₂O is within – and for Berlin a defining element, a continual theme. That's Marcus Carlsson's topic for his Berlin exhibition 2019. Presenting his abstract paintings, playful, full of anecdotes. From 1st of March to 27th of April, he presents his works at PharoDercks – at the gallery on Schönhauser Allee.

Marcus Carlsson ... has many facets. Originally a professional photographer working all over Europe, his main focus in the last decade shifted increasingly to painting. In this field, his works won prizes, and he has made a name for himself on 3 continents. Born 1977 in Teckomatorp, Sweden, the artist continues to devote himself to video art and photography (<http://www.artbymac.se/>) in addition to painting. His latest project "Berliner Reihe – H₂O" will now be presented exclusively in Berlin.
